AN ORDNANCE SURVEY BASED LOCATION PLAN SUFFICIENT TO IDENTIFY THE SITE AND ITS RELATIONSHIP WITH THE SURROUNDING LAND MUST ACCOMPANY THIS FORM.

You are reminded that a period of at least 12 weeks must elapse between giving the notice and submitting any such application. During that time, the required pre-application consultation must take place. The planning application must be accompanied by a pre-application consultation report. An application which does not include the required report is invalid and the Council must decline to determine it. Before doing so, the Council may request additional information. If the Council declines to determine your application, it will advise you of the reason for its opinion that you have not complied with the pre-application consultation requirements.

Glasgow City Council is registered under the Data Protection Act 1998. The Council is under an obligation to manage properly public funds. Accordingly, information that you have provided on this form may be used to prevent and detect fraud, and may also be shared for the same purposes with other public bodies or other organisations that handle public funds.
