Affordable Warmth Dividend Guidance

What is the Affordable Warmth Dividend?

The Affordable Warmth Dividend is a £100 payment made by the Council to Glasgow residents who are 80 years of age and older on or before 31 March 2021 to help keep warm during the winter.

Who is eligible for the Affordable Warmth Dividend?

All residents who are 80 years of age or over by 31 March 2021 and living in Glasgow.

Did you receive a payment last year?

If you received a payment last year and remain registered as a Council Tax payer, you will automatically receive a payment again this year. You will be sent a letter advising you when your payment will be made.

If you have not received a letter by the end of November 2020 you should complete this application form.

How can I make an application?

You can apply for the Affordable Warmth Dividend in two ways:

Online

To apply online use the following link www.glasgow.gov.uk/awd

Application forms are available from:

- The Council's website at www.glasgow.gov.uk/awd
- Telephone 0141 287 7961

If you would like to post in your completed application please return it to:

Glasgow City Council

P.O. Box 36

Glasgow

G1 1JE

How long will the scheme be available?

Applications will be accepted from 5 November 2020 until 31 March 2021. We are unable to accept applications received after this date.

How will payments be made?

The preferred method of payment is by BACS directly into your Bank Account, however if you only have a post office account an alternative payment can be arranged.

When will the payment be made?

The Council will aim to make a payment to you in the month after we receive your application.

What evidence is needed to support your claim?

- a letter from the Department of Work and Pensions that confirms your address
- birth certificate
- passport
- driving licence
- utilities bill, bank statement or similar documents confirming residency at a given address
- pension award letter

If you are unable to provide the above evidence but have other documents that confirm your age and your address you can post them with your completed application or upload them online and your Affordable Warmth Dividend claim will be considered.

Is the claim limited to one person in a household?

No. Anyone who meets the criteria can apply, including those living in residential homes and hospitals.

Can someone apply on my behalf?

Yes, someone can apply on your behalf.

- On the online form there is a section that can be completed by someone applying on your behalf.
- On the paper form, if you write their details in the section at the bottom of the paper form or online. You can either complete the rest of the form or ask your nominated person to do it for you. However, you should still sign and date the application form.

Where can I find out more information?

Privacy statement for Affordable Warmth Dividend

Who we are:

Glasgow City Council is a local authority established under the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994 and having its chief office at City Chambers, George Square, Glasgow G2 2DU, United Kingdom. You can contact our data protection officer by post at this address, or by email at: dataprotection@glasgow.gov.uk, or by telephone - 0141 287 1055.

Why do we need your personal information and what do we do with it?

You are giving us your personal information to allow us to assess your claim for Affordable Warmth Dividend and pay it if you are eligible to it. We also use your information to verify your identity where required, contact you by post, email or telephone and to maintain our records.

Legal basis for using your information:

We provide these services to you as part of our statutory function as your local authority. You can find more details of our role on our website www.glasgow.gov.uk/privacy. Processing your personal information is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest by the council. If you do not provide us with the information we have asked for then we will not be able to provide this service to you.

Who do we share your information with?

We are legally obliged to safeguard public funds so we are required to verify and check your details internally for fraud prevention. We may share this information with other public bodies (and also receive information from these other bodies) for fraud checking purposes. We are also legally obliged to share certain data with other public bodies, such as HMRC and will do so where the law requires this. We will also generally comply with requests for specific information from other regulatory and law enforcement bodies where this is necessary and appropriate. Your information is also analysed internally to help us improve our services. This data sharing is in accordance with our Information Use and Privacy Policy and covered in our full privacy statement on our website. It also forms part of our requirements in line with our Records Management Plan approved in terms of the Public Records (Scotland) Act 2011.

How long do we keep your information for?

We only keep your personal information for the minimum period amount of time necessary. Sometimes this time period is set out in the law, but in most cases it is based on the business need. We maintain a records retention and disposal schedule which sets out how long we hold different types of information for. You can view this on our website at www.glasgow.gov.uk/rrds or you can request a hard copy from the contact address stated above.

Your rights under data protection law:

- Access to your information – You have the right to request a copy of the personal information about you that we hold.
- Correcting your information – We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate, complete and up to date and you may ask us to correct any personal information about you that you believe does not meet these standards.
- Deletion of your information – You have the right to ask us to delete personal information about you where:
 - I. You consider that we no longer require the information for the purposes for which it was obtained
 - II. You have validly objected to our use of your personal information – see Objecting to how we may use your information below
 - III. Our use of your personal information is contrary to law or our other legal obligations.

Objecting to how we may use your information – You have the right at any time to require us to stop using your personal information for direct marketing purposes.

Restricting how we may use your information – in some cases, you may ask us to restrict how we use your personal information. This right might apply, for example, where we are checking the accuracy of personal information about you that we hold or assessing the validity of any objection you have made to our use of your information. The right might also apply if we no longer have a basis for using your personal information but you don't want us to delete the data. Where this right is validly exercised, we may only use the relevant personal information with your consent, for legal claims or where there are other public interest grounds to do so.

Please contact us in any of the ways set out above if you wish to exercise any of these rights.

Information you have given us about other people:

If you have provided anyone else's details on this form, please make sure that you have told them that you have given their information to Glasgow City Council. We will only use this information if you have granted them a mandate to apply, or enquire upon your behalf. If they want any more information on how we will use their information they can visit our web site at www.glasgow.gov.uk/privacy or email dataprotection@glasgow.gov.uk.
