

Glasgow City Council's Affordable Warmth Dividend

Dear Sir or Madam

The Affordable Warmth Dividend is a £100 payment made by the Council to Glasgow residents who are over the age of 80, to help with the extra expenses of keeping warm during the winter.

To apply for the dividend, please complete the form on the other side of this page. Please read the enclosed guidance information which will help you complete the form.

Once you have done this, please return the completed form with documents that confirm your date of birth and your residency in Glasgow, such as photocopies of your birth certificate and household bills.

If you receive Housing Benefit or Council Tax Reduction you do not need to provide documents.

You should not send passports or bank books in the mail.

Please return the form and supporting documents to the following address:

Glasgow City Council
PO Box 36
Glasgow G1 1JE
