NOTES ON REGISTRATION OF FOOD BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENTS

What is registration?

1. Registration of a food business establishment (including market stalls, delivery vehicles and other moveable structures) is required by law. Registration will allow local authorities to keep an up-to-date list of all those businesses in their area so they can visit them when they need to. The frequency of the visits will depend on the type of business.

Who needs to register?

2. Anyone starting a new food business must register with the local authority at least 28 days before doing so.

How do I register?

3. By filling in this form. Registration cannot be refused and there is no charge. The registration form must be sent to your local authority. The address can be found on the registration form. If the form is sent to the wrong address your application will not take effect until it is received at the proper place. If you use premises in more than one local authority area, you must register with each authority separately.

What happens to the information given on the form

4. The local authority will enter the details on its Register. A register of addresses and the type of business carried on at each will be open to inspection by the general public. Records of the other information provided will not be publicly available.

Changes

5. Once you have registered with the Local Authority you only need notify them of a change of proprietor, if the nature of the business changes, or if there is a change of address at which moveable premises are kept. The new proprietor will have to complete an application form.

If the local authority wishes to change the entry in the Register because of information which it receives from someone else you will be given 28 days notice and an opportunity to comment on the proposed change.
