

Kibble Palace
Botanic Gardens
730 Great Western Road
Glasgow G12

Venue Information

Situated within the Botanic Gardens in Glasgow's West End, the Kibble Palace is one of the most prestigious iron and glass structures remaining from the Victorian era. The Kibble Palace is home to marvellous marble statues as well as temperate plants from around the world including a national collection of giant tree ferns, which have grown there for the last 130 years.

The Kibble Palace is an important and unique glasshouse of its type and takes the form of a large dome and rotunda connected to a smaller dome by a link corridor.

This fabulous structure provides a unique venue for wedding ceremonies, drinks and buffet receptions.
