Application for Exemption from Rates in terms of Section 22 of the Valuation and Rating (Scotland) Act 1956 as amended.

An exemption from non-domestic rates is available on premises where they are used for one or more of the following purposes—

- (a) a building occupied by a religious body and used for the purpose of religious worship;
- (b) a church hall, chapel hall or similar premises used in connection with a building such as is referred to in paragraph (a) above for the purposes of the religious body which occupies that building; or
- (c) any premises occupied by a religious body and used by it:
 - (i) for carrying out administrative or other activities relating to the organisation of the conduct of religious worship in a building such as is referred to in paragraph (a) above; or
 - (ii) as an office or for office purposes, or for purposes ancillary to its use as an office or for office purposes.

The form should be completed and returned, with the appropriate documentary evidence, to the above address.
