MEMORANDUM of ASSOCIATION

Of

EASTHALL RESIDENTS ASSOCIATION
(As Amended)

1. The Company's name (hereinafter referred to as "the Association") is

EASTHALL RESIDENTS ASSOCIATION

2. The Association's registered office is to be situated in Scotland.

3. The Association's objects are:

(i) To promote the benefit of the residents of Greater Easterhouse and surrounding area without distinction of political, religious or other opinions, by associating the local authorities, voluntary corporate bodies and residents in common effort to advance education, relieve poverty and to provide facilities in the interest of the social welfare for recreation and leisure time occupation with the objective of improving the conditions of life for the said inhabitants.

In pursuance of those aims (but not otherwise), the Association shall have the following powers:

(ii)(a) To secure the establishment, maintenance and management of a community hall.

(b) To carry on any other activities which further any of the above objects.

(c) To promote companies whose activities may further one or more of the above objects, or may generate income to support the activities of the Association, acquire and hold shares in such companies and carry out, in relation to any such company which is a subsidiary of the Association, all such functions as may be associated with a holding company.

- (d) To acquire and take over the whole or any part of the undertaking and liabilities of any body holding property or rights which are suitable for the Association's activities.
- (e) To purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, any property or rights which are suitable for the Association's activities.
- (f) To improve, manage, develop, or otherwise deal with, all or any part of the property and rights of the Association.
- (g) To sell, let, hire out, license, or otherwise dispose of, all or any part of the property and rights of the Association.
- (h) To lend money and give credit (with or without security) and to grant guarantees and issue indemnities.
- (i) To borrow money, and to give security in support of any such borrowings by the Association, in support of any obligations undertaken by the Association or in support of any guarantee issued by the Association.
- (j) To employ such staff as are considered appropriate for the proper conduct of the Association's activities, and to make reasonable provision for the payment of pension and/or other benefits for members of staff, ex-members of staff and their dependants.
- (k) To engage such consultants and advisers as are considered appropriate from time to time.
- (l) To effect insurance of all kinds (which may include officers' liability insurance).
- (m) To invest any funds which are not immediately required for the Association's activities in such investments as may be considered appropriate (and to dispose of, and vary, such investments).
- (n) To liaise with other voluntary sector bodies, local authorities, UK or Scottish government departments and agencies, and other bodies, all with a view to furthering the Association's objects.
- (o) To establish and/or support any other charitable body, and to make donations for any charitable purpose falling within the Association's objects.
- (p) To take such steps as may be deemed appropriate for the purpose of raising funds for the Association's activities.

(q) To accept grants, donations and legacies of all kinds (and to accept any reasonable conditions attaching to them).

(r) To oppose, or object to, any application or proceedings which may prejudice the Association's interests.

(s) To enter into any arrangement with any corporate body, government or authority which may be advantageous for the purposes of the activities of the Association, and to enter into any arrangement for co-operation or mutual assistance with any charitable body.

(t) To do anything which may be incidental or conducive to the furtherance of any of the Association's objects.

And it is declared that

(i) in this "clause, "property" means any property, heritable or moveable, wherever situated

(ii) in this clause, and throughout this memorandum of association, the expression "charitable purpose" shall mean a charitable purpose under Section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 which is also regarded as a charitable purpose in relation to the application of the Taxes Acts, including any statutory amendment or re-enactment for the time being in force.

4. (a) The income and property of the Association shall be applied solely towards promoting the Association's objects (as set out in clause 3).

(b) No part of the income or property of the Association shall be paid or transferred (directly or indirectly) to the members of the Association, whether by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise.

(c) No director of the Association shall be appointed as a paid employee of the Association; no director shall hold any office under the Association for which a salary or fee is payable.

(d) No benefit (whether in money or in kind) shall be given by the Association to any director except

(i) repayment of out-of-pocket expenses or

(ii) reasonable payment in return for particular services (not being of a management nature) actually rendered to the Association.

5. The liability of the members is limited.

6. Every member of the Association undertakes to contribute such amount as may be required (not exceeding £1) to the Association's assets if it should be wound up while he/she is a member or within one year after he/she ceases to be a member, for payment of the Association's debts and liabilities contracted before he/she ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

7. (a) If on the winding-up of the Association any property remains after satisfaction of all the Association's debts and liabilities, such property shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Association; that property shall instead be transferred to some other charitable body or bodies (whether incorporated or unincorporated) whose objects are similar (wholly or in part) to the objects of the Association.

(b) The body or bodies to which property is transferred under paragraph (a) shall be determined by the members of the Association at or before the time of dissolution or, failing such determination, by such court as may have jurisdiction at the time.

(c) To the extent that effect cannot be given to the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this clause 7, the relevant property shall be applied to some other charitable object or objects.

8. (a) Accounting records shall be kept in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements and such accounting records shall, in particular, contain entries from day to day of all sums of money received and expended by the Association and the matters in respect of which such receipt and expenditure take place and a record of the assets and liabilities of the Association; such accounting records shall be open to inspection at all times by any director of the Association.

(b) The Association's auditors shall make a report to the members on the accounts examined by them and on every balance sheet and income and expenditure account and all group accounts, copies of which are to be laid before the Association in general meeting. This clause may be omitted from the memorandum if the Association will qualify for exemption from audit under the audit exemption regulations.

WE, the subscribers to this, Memorandum of Association, wish to be formed into an Association pursuant to this Memorandum

ARTICLES of ASSOCIATION

Interpretation

1. In these regulations:-

"the Act" means the Companies Act 1985 including any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force.

"the articles" means the articles of the Association.

"clear days" in relation to the period of a notice means that period excluding the day when the notice is given or deemed to be given and the day for which it is given or on which it is to take effect.

"electronic communication" has the same meaning as is assigned to that expression in the Electronic Communications Act 2000.

"office" means the registered office of the Association.

"corporate body" means any Association, group or body whether incorporated or unincorporated.

"the seal" means the common seal of the Association.

"secretary" means the secretary of the Association or any other person appointed to perform the duties of the secretary of the Association, including a joint, assistant or deputy secretary.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these regulations bear the same meaning as in the Act but excluding any statutory modification thereof not in force when these regulations become binding on the Association.

Reference in these articles to the singular shall be deemed to include the plural.

Qualifications for membership

2. The members of the Association shall consist of the subscribers to the memorandum of association and such other persons and corporate bodies as are admitted to membership under articles 4 to 8.

Categories of Member

3. For the purposes of these articles

"Member" means a member admitted under paragraphs (i) and (ii) of article 4.

4. Membership shall be open to:

(i) any individual (if aged 16 or over) resident within Greater Easterhouse and surrounding area.

(ii) any corporate body which supports the aims of the Association.

(iii) No more than one individual nominated by each corporate body may be a member of the Association at any given time.

5. Employees of the Association shall not be eligible for membership; a person who becomes an employee of the Association after admission to membership shall automatically cease to be a member.

Application for membership

6. Any person or corporate body who wishes to become a member must sign, and lodge with the Association, a written application for membership; in the case of an application under paragraph (ii) of article 4, the application must also be signed by an appropriate officebearer of the corporate body which is nominating him/her for membership.

7. The directors may, at their discretion, refuse to admit any person or corporate body to membership.

8. The directors shall consider each application for membership at the first directors' meeting which is held after receipt of the application; the directors shall, within a reasonable time after the meeting, notify the applicant of their decision on the application.

Membership subscription

9. Members shall pay such subscription as the Association may from time to time determine, payable on enrolment and thereafter following each annual general meeting.

Register of members

10. The directors shall maintain a register of members, setting out the full name and address of each member, the date on which he/she was admitted to membership and the date on which any person ceased to be a member; in the case of a member who was admitted under paragraph (ii) of article 4, the entry against his/her name shall also include details of the corporate body which nominated him/her for membership.

Withdrawal from membership

11. Any person or corporate body who/which wishes to withdraw from membership shall sign, and lodge with the Association, a written notice to that effect; on receipt of the notice by the Association, he/she/it shall cease to be a member.

Expulsion from membership

12. (a) Any person or corporate body may be expelled from membership by special resolution (see article 26), providing the following procedures have been observed:

(i) at least 21 days' notice of the intention to propose the resolution must be given to the member concerned, specifying the grounds for the proposed expulsion.

(ii) the member concerned shall be entitled to be heard on the resolution at the general meeting at which the resolution is proposed.

(b) The directors shall have the right for good and sufficient reason to terminate the membership of any member provided that the member concerned shall have a right to be heard before any final decision is made.

Termination/transfer

13. Membership shall cease on death or in the case of a corporate body on receivership, liquidation, dissolution, winding-up or striking-off of the corporate body which constituted the member

14. A corporate body which has nominated an individual for membership may withdraw its nomination at any time by written notice to the Association to that effect; on receipt of the notice by the Association, the individual in question shall automatically cease to be a member of the Association.

15. A member may not transfer his/her/its membership to any other person or corporate body.

General meetings (meetings of members)

16. The directors shall convene an annual general meeting in each year (but excluding the year in which the Association is formed); the first annual general meeting shall be held not later than 18 months after the date of incorporation of the Association.

17. Not more than 15 months shall elapse between one annual general meeting and the next.

18. The business of each annual general meeting shall include;

(a) a report by the chair on the activities of the Association.

(b) consideration of the annual accounts of the Association.

(c) the election/re-election of directors, as referred to in articles 45 to 49.

19. The directors may convene an extraordinary general meeting at any time.

20. The directors must convene an extraordinary general meeting if there is a valid requisition by members (under section 368 of the Act) or a requisition by a resigning auditor (under section 392A of the Act).

Notice of general meetings

21. At least 21 clear days' notice must be given of

(a) an annual general meeting or

(b) an extraordinary general meeting at which a special resolution (see article 26) or a resolution requiring special notice under the Act, is to be proposed; all other extraordinary general meetings shall be called by at least 14 clear days' notice.

22. The reference to "clear days" in article 21 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice, the day after the notice is posted and also the day of the meeting, should be excluded.

23. A notice calling a meeting shall specify the time and place of the meeting; it shall

- (a) indicate the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting and
- (b) if a special resolution (see article 26) (or a resolution requiring special notice under the Act) is to be proposed, shall also state that fact, giving the exact terms of the resolution.

24. A notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify that the meeting is to be an annual general meeting; any other general meeting shall be called an extraordinary general meeting.

25. Notice of every general meeting shall be given (either in writing or, where the party to whom notice is given has notified the Association of an address to be used for the purpose of electronic communications, by way of an electronic communication) to all the members and directors, and (if there are auditors in office at the time) to the auditors.

Special resolutions and ordinary resolutions

26. For the purposes of these articles, a "special resolution" means a resolution passed by 75% or more of the votes cast on the resolution at an annual general meeting or extraordinary general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting and of the intention to propose the resolution has been given in accordance with articles 21 to 25; for the avoidance of doubt, the reference to a 75% majority relates only to the number of votes cast in favour of the resolution as compared with the number of votes cast against the resolution, and accordingly no account shall be taken of abstentions or members absent from the meeting.

27. In addition to the matters expressly referred to elsewhere in these articles, the provisions of the Act allow the Association, by special resolution,

- (a) to alter its name
- (b) to alter its memorandum of association with respect to the Association's objects

(c) to alter any provision of these articles or adopt new articles of association.

28. For the purposes of these articles, an "ordinary resolution" means a resolution passed by majority vote (taking account only of those votes cast in favour as compared with those votes against, and (as applicable) the chairperson casting vote), at an annual general meeting or extraordinary general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting has been given in accordance with articles 21 to 25.

Procedure at general meetings

29. No business shall be dealt with at any general meeting unless a quorum is present; the quorum for a general meeting shall be 15 members, present in person or (in the case of members which are corporate bodies) present via their duly authorised representatives.

30. If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which a general meeting was due to commence, or if, during a meeting, a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as may be fixed by the chairperson of the meeting.

31. The chair of the Association shall (if present and willing to act as chairperson) preside as chairperson of each general meeting; if the chair is not present and willing to act as chairperson within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to commence, the directors present at the meeting shall elect from among themselves the he/she/it who will act as chairperson of that meeting.

32. The chairperson of a general meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting to such time and place as the chairperson may determine.

33. Every member shall have one vote, which (whether on a show of hands or on a secret ballot) must be given either personally, by postal vote in writing or by proxy or (in the case of a member which is an corporate body) given via its duly authorised representative.

34. A member which is an corporate body shall be entitled to authorise an individual to attend and vote at general meetings; he/she will then be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporate body which he/she represents as that corporate body could have exercised if it had been an individual member of the Association."

35. A member who wishes to appoint a proxy to vote on his behalf at any meeting (or adjourned meeting) shall lodge with the Association, at the office, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting (or, as the case may be, adjourned meeting), a written instrument of proxy (in such form as the directors require), signed by him; an instrument of proxy which does not conform with the preceding provisions or which is not lodged in accordance with such provisions shall be invalid.

36. A member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion.

37. A proxy appointed to attend and vote at any meeting instead of a member shall have the same right as the member who appointed him to speak at the meeting and need not be a member of the Association.

38. A vote given, or poll demanded, by proxy shall be valid notwithstanding that the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll had terminated prior to the giving of such vote or demanding of such poll unless notice of such termination was received by the Association at the office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote was given or the poll demanded.

39. If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote.

40. A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a secret ballot is demanded by the chairperson (or by at least two persons present at the meeting and entitled to vote, whether as members or as representatives of corporate body members); a secret ballot may be demanded either before the show of hands takes place, or immediately after the result of the show of hands is declared.

41. If a secret ballot is demanded, it shall be taken at the meeting and shall be conducted in such a manner as the chairperson may direct; the result of the ballot shall be declared at the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.

Maximum and Minimum number of directors

42. The maximum number of directors shall (unless otherwise determined by special resolution) be 20, and (unless otherwise determined by special resolution) the minimum number of directors shall be 5.

Eligibility

43. A person shall not be eligible for election/appointment as a director unless he/she is a member of the Association or has been nominated for election/appointment as a director by a member which is an corporate body.”

44. A person shall not be eligible for election/appointment as a director if he/she is an employee of the Association.

Election, retiral, re-election

45. A each annual general meeting, the members may (subject to article 42) elect any member (providing he/she is willing to act) to be a director.

46. The directors may at any time appoint any member (providing he/she is willing to act) to be a director (subject to article 42).

47. A member which is an corporate body may (subject to article 48) nominate any individual for election/appointment as a director; he/she will then be deemed to be a member of the Association for the purposes of articles 45 and 46.

48. No more than one individual nominated under article 47 by each corporate body member may serve as a director at any given time.”

49. At each annual general meeting, all of the directors shall retire from office - but shall then be eligible for re-election.

Termination of office

50. A director shall automatically vacate office if:

(a) he/she ceases to be a director through the operation of any provision of the Act or becomes prohibited by law from being a director

(b) he/she becomes debarred under any statutory provision from being involved in the administration or management of a charity

(c) he/she becomes incapable for any reason of fulfilling the duties of his /her office and such reason is expected to continue for a period of more than six months

(d) he/she ceases to be a member of the Association (whether as an individual member or an corporate body member)

(e) he/she becomes an employee of the Association

(f) he/she resigns office by notice to the Association

(g) he/she is absent (without permission of the directors) from more than 3 consecutive meetings of the directors, and the directors resolve to remove him/her from office

(h) he/she is removed from office by ordinary resolution (special notice having been given) in pursuance of section 303 of the Act.

Register of directors

51. The directors shall maintain a register of directors, setting out full details of each director, the name of the corporate body member which nominated each director (if applicable), the date on which each such person became a director, and the date on which any person ceased to hold office as a director.

Office bearers

52. The directors shall elect from among themselves a chairperson and a treasurer, and such other office bearers (if any) as they consider appropriate.

53. All of the office bearers shall cease to hold office at the conclusion of each annual general meeting, but shall then be eligible for re-election.

54. Any person elected to any office shall cease to hold that office if he/she ceases to be a director, or if he/she resigns from that office by written notice to that effect.

Powers of directors

55. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the memorandum of association and these articles, and subject to any directions given by special resolution, the Association and its assets and undertaking shall be managed by the directors, who may exercise all the powers of the Association.

56. A meeting of the directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the directors.

Personal interests

57. A director who has a personal interest in any transaction or other arrangement which the Association is proposing to enter into, must declare that interest at a meeting of the directors; he/she will be debarred (in terms of article 68) from voting on the question of whether or not the Association should enter into that arrangement.

58. For the purposes of the preceding article, a director shall be deemed to have a personal interest in an arrangement if any partner or other close relative of his /hers or any firm of which he/she is a partner or any limited Association of which he/she is a substantial shareholder or director (or any other party who/which is deemed to be connected with him/her for the purposes of section 317 of the Act), has a personal interest in that arrangement.

59. Provided he/she has declared his/her interest - and has not voted on the question of whether or not the Association should enter into the relevant arrangement - a director will not be debarred from entering into an arrangement with the Association in which he/she has a personal interest (or is deemed to have a personal interest under article (58) and may retain any personal benefit which he/she gains from his/her participation in that arrangement.

60. No director may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of the Association, and no director may be given any remuneration by the Association for carrying out his/her duties as a director.

61. The directors may be paid all travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of the directors, general meetings, or meetings of committees, or otherwise in connection with the carrying-out of their duties.

Procedure at directors' meetings

62. Any director may call a meeting of the directors or request the secretary to call a meeting of the directors.

63. Questions arising at a meeting of the directors shall be decided by a majority of votes; if an equality of votes arises, the chairperson of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

64. No business shall be dealt with at a meeting of the directors unless a quorum is present; the quorum for the transaction of the business of the directors may be fixed by the directors and, unless so fixed at any other number, shall be 5.

65. If at any time the number of directors in office falls below the number fixed as the quorum, the remaining director(s) may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

66. Unless he/she is unwilling to do so, the chair of the Association shall preside as chairperson at every directors' meeting at which he/she is present; if the chair is unwilling to act as chairperson or is not present within 15 minutes after the time when the meeting was due to commence, the directors present shall elect from among themselves the he/she/it who will act as chairperson of the meeting.

67. The directors may, at their discretion, allow any person who they reasonably consider appropriate, to attend and speak at any meeting of the directors; for the avoidance of doubt, any such person who is invited to attend a directors' meeting shall not be entitled to vote.

68. A director shall not vote at a directors' meeting (or at a meeting of a committee) on any resolution concerning a matter in which he/she has a personal interest which conflicts (or may conflict) with the interests of the Association; he/she must withdraw from the meeting while an item of that nature is being dealt with.

69. For the purposes of article 68, a person shall be deemed to have a personal interest in a particular matter if any partner or other close relative of his /hers or any firm of which he/she is a partner or any limited Association of which he/she is a substantial shareholder or director, has a personal interest in that matter.

70. A director shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which he/she is not entitled to vote.

71. The Association may, by ordinary resolution, suspend or relax to any extent - either generally or in relation to any particular matter - the provisions of articles 68 to 70.

Delegation to sub-committees

72. The directors may delegate any of their powers to any sub-committee; such sub-committees shall have a director as their convener and shall consist of members and/or directors holding a majority in the membership of such sub-committees.

73. Any delegation of powers under article 72 may be made subject to such conditions as the directors may impose and may be revoked or altered.

74. The rules of procedure for any sub-committee shall be as prescribed by the directors.

Operation of bank accounts

75. The signatures of two out of the signatories appointed by the directors shall be required in relation to all operations (other than lodgement of funds) on the bank and building society accounts held by the Association; at least one out of the two signatures must be the signature of a director.

Secretary

76. The Association secretary shall be appointed by the directors for such term, at such remuneration (if any), and upon such conditions, as they may think fit; the Association secretary may be removed by them at any time.

Minutes

77. The directors shall ensure that minutes are made of all proceedings at general meetings, directors' meetings and meetings of committees; a minute of any meeting shall include the names of those present, and (as far as possible) shall be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.

Accounting records and annual accounts

78. The directors shall ensure that proper accounting records are maintained in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements.

79. The directors shall prepare annual accounts, complying with all relevant statutory requirements; if an audit is required under any statutory provisions or if they otherwise think fit, they shall ensure that an audit of such accounts is carried out by a qualified auditor.

80. No member shall (unless he/she is a director) have any right of inspecting any accounting or other records, or any document of the Association, except as conferred by statute or as authorised by the directors or as authorised by ordinary resolution of the Association.

The Seal

81. (a) The Association may have a seal if it so wishes. Insofar as the Association has a seal it shall only be used with the consent of the Directors or of a committee of Directors. The Directors may determine who shall sign any instrument to which the seal is to be affixed and unless otherwise so determined it shall be signed by a Director and also by the Association Secretary or by a second Director. The Obligation under Clause 6 of Table A relating to the sealing of share certificates shall only apply if the Association has a seal. Clause 101 of Table A shall not apply to the Association.

(b) The Association may exercise the powers conferred by Section 39 of the Act with regard to having an official seal for use abroad and such powers shall be vested in the Directors.

Notices

82. Any notice which requires to be given to a member under these articles shall be given either in writing; such a notice may either be given personally to the member or be sent by post in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the member at the address last intimated by him/her/it to the Association.

83. Any notice, if sent by post, shall be deemed to have been given at the expiry of 24 hours after posting; for the purpose of proving that any notice was given, it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the notice was properly addressed and posted.

84. Any notice contained in an electronic communication shall be deemed to have been given at the expiry of 24 hours after it is sent; for the purpose of proving that any electronic communication was sent, it shall be sufficient to provide any of the evidence referred to in the relevant guidance issued from time to time by the Chartered Institute of Secretaries and Administrators.

Winding-up

85. If the Association is wound up, the liquidator shall give effect to the provisions of clause 7 of the memorandum of association.
