To promote inclusiveness, opportunity and access for all, irrespective of social, racial, religious or cultural background; to improve facilities and coaching availability in our area and to promote youth diversity through football.

In the year ended 31 March 2018, the core objectives were:

To consolidate and develop the Bridges and Barriers, our flagship anti-sectarian project, in order to promote its use outside of our own demographic and develop the concept of a national project. This has progressed well and the group have hired a project co-ordinator who is driving delivery in other locations.

The initiation of the North Kelvin Academy – a project to provide after school care to local families, despite a slow start this is now being delivered at all the target locations.

We hope to expand the delivery of Fit & Able – a project designed to support young people with disabilities or assisted needs. We have secured additional locations for this project and have also secured additional funding support.

We hope to maintain the SFA Quality Mark status, this has been delivered in line with the requirements of the Quality Mark accreditation.

Overall the year provided record funding for some of our most prominent community projects and the group would like to thank all of its funding contributors, including:

- Scottish Government Tackling Sectarianism Fund

NOTES FORMING PART OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR YEAR ENDING 31 MARCH 2018

We report on the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2018 set out on pages two to four.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of the Independent Examiner's Report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
