

From Richard Kelly, Wednesday 7th August 2019

Hi Jenny

I'd welcome a brief chat with you by phone (unless you happen to be coming into the city centre) either today or tomorrow. My diary is good tomorrow however a bit cluttered today. Hopefully you're free sometime; could you let me know please?

Thanks, Richard

Hi Jenny

Thanks for your email and also your kind offer to extend the timescale for a response which is very much appreciated. Thanks also for providing additional information about where you are with SLF and the arrangements you have brokered with them.

I will be back in touch with you by Friday 9th August at the latest.

Kind regards, Richard

Subject: Re: Asset Transfer Request - Beatroute Arts

Hi Richard,

Thanks for coming back to me so promptly. If the 31st of July is not feasible, can we instead propose that we receive a response no later than the 9th August? We think this is ample time for a response to be considered and submitted, given that our solicitor sent a detailed letter regarding Terms on the 3rd June, and we have since proposed a price for the asset.

Beatroute has been invited to submit its Stage 2 SLF application on the 15th August, with the understanding that the price for the asset may not at this stage have been agreed. The SLF is allowing this as a one-off, as they understand that the lengthy negotiation period has not been caused by Beatroute Arts but rather by response times on GCC's side, and lack of clear negotiation regarding Terms. However, this extension to the statement of price for the asset is short and we
